

Do not weaken or overturn the "Do Not Call" law. I have always considered unwanted phone calls as an electronic violation of our house and perhaps a it should be mandated that a search warrent should be secured by those who call.